Den Danske Ambassade i Seoul	INCONNU	Maria Wandel and Thomas Andersen are full-time artist and curator in Denmark, and they have worked intensively for the last three years on creating exhibitions abroad. Two artists chose Korea as it is an very important market and is rapidly growing country into an international art scene. As this is Maria Wandel's first exhibition in Korea, the overall purpose would be to establish good contacts with people and institutions, as well as to reach out to local art scene. This is a unique opportunity to do a solo exhibition with Maria Wandel in one of the most interesting galleries in Seoul.	10.200,00 kr.
Maison du Danemark	Kærlig hilsen hadet - Amicalement la Haine	Formålet med projektet Kærlig hilsen hadet er at introducere ny, dansk teater for et professionelt og alment fransk publikum. Monologformatet gør forestillingen let at sætte op i forskellige placeringer og situationer, der lader publikum være i intim nærhed med skuespilleren og med fortællingen. En personlig historie om overfald og selvdestruktion er omdrejningspunkt for en almen fortælling om hadets alfabet, både personligt og samfundsstrukturelt - en fortælling, som alle kan spejle sig i.	52.000,00 kr.
Det Danske Institut i Athen	Lecture Series: Underwater Archaeology and Cultural Resources: Methodology, Preservation, and Communication - A Dialogue Between Denmark and Greece	This project creates a democratic dialogue between Danish and Greek experts. Both countries possess irreplaceable underwater cultural heritage including shipwrecks and submerged settlements, and are at the forefront of Blue Humanities. The lectures' themes are methodology, preservation, and communication. This includes the newest sustainable technologies for underwater preservation and exploration, as well as how to best communicate these rich resources through Ocean Literacy to a broad audience.	25.000,00 kr.

Det Danske Hus i Palæstina	Literary Bridges: A Danish-Palestinian Collaboration to Promote Cultural Exchange and Danish Children's Literature	The project aims to promote intercultural dialogue and exchange between Denmark and Palestine via promotion of Danish literature and cultural activities. The Danish House in Palestine, Tamer Institute for Community Education and Danish children's author Anne Sofie will collaborate on engaging Palestinian children, budding writers and librarians in activities focused on Danish literature and writing for children and young adults. By facilitating cultural exchange and appreciation, the project aims to inspire creativity, critical thinking and promote mutual understanding.	20.000,00 kr.
Den Danske Ambassade i Tokyo	Nordic Jazz Festival 2023 in Tokyo	The overall purpose of the project is to create an intercultural music exchange between the Nordic countries and Japan, and revitalize the Nordic presence on the Japanese jazz scene after the pandemic. The festival will introduce several Danish jazz musicians to the Japanese jazz scene and vice versa. The idea of the project is therefore to promote Danish jazz artists in Japan and also inspire the Japanese jazz scene to collaborate more with Denmark in the future, facilitated by establishing long lasting partnerships and networks during the festival.	100.000,00 kr.
Den Danske Ambassade i Seoul	Our Anthology	The project was initiated purely by two young ambitious Dk and KR ceramists who wanted to develop and share culture through art. Through a collaborative ceramic exhibition with young artists Denmark and Korea, artists will highlight distinctive societal & artistic values of the two countries. The exhibition aims to cultivate a new and long-lasting network of communities for innovative perspectives & intercultural dialogues. With artists meeting on their own terms of curiosity & aspiration, not only artistic expressions are shared, but also deeper insight into the societies.	54.000,00 kr.

Den Danske Ambassade i Prag	SCANDI Film Festival 2024	DFI: Christian: The Scandi film festival is a well- established yearly cross-cultural event focused on promoting Nordic films in the Czech Republic and Slovakia, bringing Danish culture to an audience that would otherwise not have the opportunity to acquaint with such a broad variety of Danish films. The festival significantly contributes to spreading Danish culture and it facilitates Denmark's cultural export of which the Danish cinematography is essential part.	35.000,00 kr.
Den Danske Ambassade i Seoul	SHOWCASE	Art Hub Copenhagen and Museum of Modern Contemporary Art will curate the performance festival SHOWCASE and present artists in unexpected public areas in and around MMCA museum. The SHOWCASE will present some of the most talented young artists and evoke a new strong interest in Danish performance and art. SHOWCASE is presented around the museum yard since the space serves as a free, democratic and public leisure space. The project will confront with audience directly with new ways of experiencing art. Den Danske Ambassade i Seoul	Space as Performer - Hommage to Niels Bohr	AVPD's works have been introduced not only in F2's collaborative exhibition in 2006 but also in permanent public art installations in 2021. AVPD's semi-permanent outdoor kinetic sculpture 'Spheres' (2021) that directly reflects social weather conditions (light and wind) in KR has been receiving a great interest and love. However, due to pandemic, AVPD didn't have the chance to see and document their works. So, their visit after 17 yrs will be an invaluable chance to present the versatility of AVPD's interdisciplinary arts and promote a previous installed art to a broader art community.	24.000,00 kr.

Den Danske Ambassade i Washington D.C.	SXSW - Music Showcase 2024	SXSW er en oplagt platform for en international indsats for dansk kultureksport. Som anerkendt branchefestival er det et vigtigt sted for musikere at blive hørt pga. det store opbud af branchefolk. Ud over muligheden for fremtidige koncertbookinger, er der også stor mulighed for at lande aftaler om musik til fx film eller spil, da tech-sporet på SXSW er stort. Her er der mulighed for at få markedsført dansk kunst og kultur, vise kreativiteten og potentialet ved dansk musik samt bruge det til at fortælle, hvordan DK bruger kunsten som platform til at tale om bæredygtighed og mental sundhed	70.000,00 kr.
Den Danske Ambassade i Brasília	The Nordic Film Festival at CCBB	The Nordic Film Festival is a partnership between the diplomatic missions of Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden in Brazil and the Centro Cultural Banco do Brasil. The event will be held in four Brazilian capitals - Belo Horizonte, Brasília, São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro - and aims to present an overview of contemporary Nordic audiovisual production. Through films that talk about Nordic values, we believe that we will be able to stimulate debates on the defense of human rights, gender equality and building a more sustainable future.	15.000,00 kr.
Den Danske Ambassade i Beirut	The Wedding	The Wedding is a play and a border breaking project between two different theatres, cities and societies. The partnership will set in motion across border inter-cultural dialogue with an all-woman refugee cast (Palestinian in Lebanon) and an all-woman technical production team (Denmark). The play will be researched and developed in Lebanon based on the true stories of women in the Refugee Camp Borj el Barajneh, and then toured around Lebanon and then in Denmark. The aim of the project is to break down borders, creating cultural dialogue and thereby also renewing Danish Arts and Culture.	141.000,00 kr.
